CALLING HEAVEN DOWN TO EARTH

This dynamic framework for praying is taken from what we generally call 'The Lord's Prayer'. It is what the disciples would have understood as Jesus taught them how to pray.

Notice the way the Lord works. The Father purposes in heaven that His kingdom will come on earth; Jesus invites us to pray for its coming. Then we have earth agreeing with heaven.

*It's a prayer where we can say with full confidence,
'I know exactly what God's will is.'*

Before you start, decide which part of the earth you are inviting the breakthrough to come to. Your region? Nation? City/village/street? Insert it within the brackets as you pray.

*Pray boldly and forcefully.
'Heaven, I invite you break in powerfully here,
just as the Father wills it.'*

*We can add blessing, just as the Father has blessed us.
'(Place), the blessing of the Lord be upon you.
I/we bless you in the name of Jesus.' (Psalm 128:9
Spend some time praying through the topic within each box.*

You may find that you are drawn to stop and pray deeper into one particular subject. Relax, stay there, and don't be pressured by yourself to have to pray through every topic every time.

CALLING HEAVEN DOWN TO EARTH

The Dynamic Lord's Prayer

If praying alone, please replace me, my etc with our, us etc.

Our Father in heaven, Reveal yourself amongst the nations until the glory of your name fills all the earth!

Let your mighty kingdom rule be released in (_____) so powerfully that the schemes, spiritual principalities and rulers of wickedness are overthrown, captives set free, and your loving will, and purposes,
be fully released, so that (_____) reflects heaven.

Pour out the convicting Spirit of revelation upon the people, that they might see Jesus.

Father, you know exactly what I need for life right now.
Give me today my daily supply; and grant me the faith and confidence to be assured that you will be my sufficient supplier for tomorrow as well.

Father, forgive me for all my sins and offences, while I forgive all who have sinned against me or offended me.

And do not lead me into the testing ground of temptation, but deliver me from the influence, snare and grip of every evil.

For the kingdom is yours eternally;
you have power to defeat every foe
and deliver on your promises forever;
and eternal glory belongs to you alone.

Amen and Amen. So be it!
